

PRAYER DIARY

SEPTEMBER 2017

1st

---

Please pray for inspiration and a fresh outpouring of the Spirit on the lives of our team as we commence a new year of work.

2nd

---

Please pray that as a team we will be expectant for God to move, and able to hear where God is leading us.

3rd

---

Please pray today for Simon as he speaks at Burlington Baptist Church. We pray that God will use him today and that people will be excited and inspired by the work of CYM.

4th

---

Please pray for Christian teachers in Ipswich that they can be "salt and light" in their school.

5th

---

Pray for a smooth start to term for the children starting a new year after a long summer break.

6th

---

Pray for chaplaincy in Suffolk One and Chantry. Please especially pray for positive first impressions and great opportunities to support the new students. There are 180 new Year 7's at Chantry and 1,000 new sixth-formers at Suffolk One.

7th

---

We pray today for Steph Crossley. Steph has joined our team this term and will be working as our Primary School Chaplain in St. John's and St. Matthew's Primaries.

8th

---

Please pray for school staff returning to work after a break. Particularly for energy, peace and passion in their jobs. We meet some incredible members of staff at African Adventure!

9th

---

Please pray for God to continue placing His vision on our Chaplaincy team.

10th

---

We pray today for Annika Mathews. Annika is joining our gap year team. Please pray especially for her settling into new accommodation and a new church.

11th

---

Pray for Ant and teachers that he is working alongside at One and Chantry. Pray that he continues to build strong relationships with the staff, and pray for opportunities for him to be able to share more of Christ's love with them.

12th

---

Heather is starting chaplaincy at St Margaret's this term; please pray for good relationships to be built with staff and pupils and that we see God doing incredible things in that place.

13th

---

Please pray for Josh as he returns to work after his trip to Uganda and shares his experiences with us and pray for Kymmene and Josh as they seek to use this experience to review, improve and keep African Adventure as relevant as possible.

14th

---

We pray today for Mirin. Having spent the last year with us on gap year, Mirin has returned in a part-time role working closely with our children's work team. Please pray for clear guidance for her future career.

15th

---

Pray for the children who visited African Adventure last academic year, that their experience would stay with them as many of them move up to high school.

---

We thank God today for Stu Smith. Stu does so much work behind the scenes with design and print and is such a wonderful encourager for our work. As we start preparing for our next magazine, we pray that Stu will be inspired by God!

17th

---

Simon is speaking at Christchurch, Felixstowe today. Please pray that God will really speak through him to that congregation.

18th

---

We pray today for Lizzie, our Chaplain at Northgate High School. Please pray for opportunities and openings to share God's love in that community.

19th

---

Please pray for the 2018-2019 year at African Adventure! Schools like to be organised (and so do we!). Please pray for new and returning schools who are booking up with us already.

---

Please pray today for Harry. As he starts his second year at Ridley Hall, we pray for strength and energy to start the year well. We also pray for all of Harry's work at St. Matthew's Church with their young people.

21st

---

We welcome Rosemary to our admin team today! We thank God that Rosemary responded to our request for help with African Adventure admin and pray that she will really enjoy her time with our team.

---

Today, we thank God for the amazing time and energy that Anne and Janet have dedicated to CYM as volunteer admin workers. They have both moved on from being with us, but we are so grateful for all that they gave to our team.

23rd

---

Please pray today for Graham, our Chair of Trustees. We pray for wisdom and discernment as Graham leads our Trustee team in the coming year.

24th

---

We pray today for Beth, our Chaplain at St. Alban's School. We pray that Beth will be a shining light in that place!

25th

---

Please pray today for Ruth – she does a brilliant job of keeping our finances recorded correctly and generally organising a lot of our admin.

26th

---

Please pray today for Jayne, Phil and David. Our Trustees give up so much time for us and we are so grateful for the expertise and experience that they bring to CYM.

27th

---

We thank God today for Heather – she has now started her training for ordination but is also spending one day per week as Chaplain to St. Margaret's school. Please pray for a good balance to her work and studies.

28th

---

Please pray today for Jean. She gives us an amazing amount of her time every week to keep us on track with our admin. We are so grateful for Jean.

29th

---

Please pray for safety for the team as they carry out some winter-term maintenance on site and make preparations for the next 2 months.

30th

---

Please continue to pray for finance for CYM. As we seek new support and look at various funding streams to grow our work, we pray for wisdom as we go about this.
